OFA Fiscal NoteState Impact:

Agency Affected	Fund-Effect	FY 15 $	FY 16 $
Children & Families, Dept.	GF - Savings	less than 500	less than 500

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

There is a Department of Children and Families (DCF) savings of less than $500 annually associated with requiring the Probate Court to waive a home study requirement for a second parent adoption unless good cause is shown. Four second parent home studies are performed by DCF annually on average. Savings are associated with reduced fuel expenses.

The Out Years

The annualized ongoing fiscal impact identified above would continue into the future subject to inflation.

OLR Bill AnalysissSB 47AN ACT CONCERNING SECOND PARENT ADOPTION.SUMMARY:

Unless it has good cause, this bill requires the probate court to waive investigations in child adoption proceedings where the person seeking to adopt shares parental responsibility with a child's biological parent ("second-parent adoption"). It also allows the court to forgo notifying the Department of Children and Families (DCF) in such cases. These provisions already apply when a stepparent seeks to adopt. In either a second-parent or stepparent adoption, however, the court may hold a hearing and order an investigation if it finds sufficient reason to do so.

The bill also makes a technical change.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2014

BACKGROUNDAdoption Investigations

State law generally requires the Probate Court, when it receives an adoption application, to ask DCF or an adoption agency to conduct an investigation to ensure that the adoption is in the child's best interest (CGS § 45a-727(b)).

DCF or the adoption agency must investigate and report on the child's physical and mental condition and other facts relevant to the proposed adoption, including the physical, mental, genetic, and educational history of the child and the physical, mental, social, and financial condition of the adopting and biological parents. The report also must include a history of any physical, sexual, or emotional abuse, and may reach a conclusion on whether the adoption is in the child's best interest. The investigator must submit a written report to the court within 60 days after being assigned the case.

Second-Parent Adoptions and Rights of Co-Parents

By law, the biological parent of a minor child may agree in writing with someone who shares parental responsibility for that child that the other person adopt or join in adopting the child. Such an adoption cannot take place unless the parental rights of the child's other parent have been terminated (CGS § 45a-724(a)(3)). Such a second-parent adoption, also called a co-parent adoption, gives a co-parent full legal rights with regard to the child.
